

Free support site for parents and carers

For parents and carers looking after children during the school closures, did you know that exam board 'Pearson' have free primary and secondary activities, tools and advice to support learning at home on their website?

Resources include sample home-school planners, primary reading and maths support, access to free eBooks at secondary, and much more. To access support click on the link.

<https://www.pearsonschooolsandfecolleges.co.uk/learnersandparents/home.aspx>